Financial Policy

This office is committed to providing cost effective, high quality healthcare to our patients. With so many insurance plans and options to choose from, it is essential that you understand which services, procedures, restrictions and limits are covered by your particular policy. It is your responsibility to know what is covered. We will bill your primary and secondary insurances for you. You are responsible for all co-pays, deductibles, co-insurance amounts and non-covered services. Please let us know if there is a change in your insurance status. Payment is required at the time of service. If your insurance company deems a service medically unnecessary, you agree to pay for the services. We will make every effort to inform you in advance. For your convenience, we accept cash, checks, Visa, MasterCard and Discover. We understand there are times when your healthcare is an unplanned event and we will attempt to accommodate your needs. Patients who do not have insurance or who choose to pay for their services, will need to pay at the time of service. For any questions, please call our billing department. There is a $30.00 fee for returned checks. If you request a copy of your own chart, you may receive the first copy at no charge. There will be a charge for all additional copies.
